Presenter: *Derrick LaBranche, UNHCE
Master Gardener*

Master Gardener Derrick LaBranche (also known as the Gardening Gadget Guy) has been collecting submissions of favorite garden implements from Master Gardeners statewide, with notes about why each particular tool is awesome!

Come find out what the coolest gardening gadgets are in the short time between putting your garden to bed and the arrival of seed catalogues.

This workshop is aimed squarely for home gardeners who want to put gadgets on their holiday wish list, or people who want to make gardeners happy by giving just the right gardening thingamabob, gizmo, or whatsis.

(You'll also learn what may not be worth the trip to the garden center.)
